

The Stellar ITS

Performance Factsheet
Q4 2025

The Stellar ITS Cumulative Performance

The Stellar ITS generated an annualised return of 2.12% in the three months to 31 December 2025.

The Stellar ITS Discrete Performance to 31 December 2025

Please note that the past performance is calculated on the basis of a Stellar service that was repositioned on 1 May 2021 as The Stellar ITS. The higher and lower targets are based on a previous target return to 30 April 2021 and then either The Stellar ITS higher or lower targets since that date. These figures do not take into account any initial or any adviser fees (either initial or ongoing). Investors should note that past performance is not a reliable indicator of future performance and investors should not rely upon past performance when considering whether or not to invest in The Stellar ITS.
